

MASTER'S MESSAGE

Brethren,

I want to welcome and congratulate our newest Brother Gregory Harris who received the First Degree of Masonry on August 17th. He has been assigned a coach and has begun his Masonic journey.

I am sure that every Brother remembers his coach who helped him gain proficiency in the different degrees. Now is the time for you to pass on that knowledge that you have acquired. If you have given your proficiency in the 3rd degree and desire to coach, notify the Senior Warden. Your Lodge needs your help.

The Temple Board has awarded a contract to repair the leaking roof at the San Dieguito building.

The following changes in the officer corps have been made Mark Sebestyen, Jr. Deacon; Joseph Manimat, Sr. Steward; and Daniel Suklja, Jr. Steward. I wish to thank these brothers who have offered to serve their Lodge as an officer.

I have appointed a committee to look into our Lodges financial health; to see if we can cut expenses and increase revenue with a possible need to increase our annual Lodge dues. I anticipate that the committee will return their report at the September Stated Meeting along with their recommendations. Any recommendations will be discussed, and if needed, balloted upon at our October Stated Meeting at the earliest. The committee will consist of Roy Youngblood, Lodge Secretary; Gary Fletcher, Chairman of Board of Trustees; Don Jones, Secretary/Treasurer of the Temple Board; Dan Spalding, Lodge Treasurer; David Lonergan, Sr. Warden; Drew Middleton, Jr. Warden; and Robert Hardaway, Sr. Deacon. I want to thank the committee members for volunteering their time and energy to serve our Lodge.

It is important that members be present at all Stated Meetings so that their voices may be heard on all matters affecting the Lodge.

Our Lodge will have the Masonic Information and Child I.D. Booth, as usual, at the Harbor Days to be held on Saturday & Sunday, September 19th & 20th. It would be appreciated if you would give Brother Don Jones a call and volunteer to assist at this important Lodge function.

The Mason of the Year awards banquet will be held at the Scottish Rite Temple in San Diego on Saturday, September 26th, starting at 5:30 with a no-host social hour and dinner at 6:30. Brother Dan Spalding will be presented this award by the Grand Master.

Fraternally,
John Brooks
Worshipful Master

MASONIC EDUCATION

Hollywood Masonic Temple, now known as the EI Capitan Entertainment Centre, is a building on Hollywood Boulevard in Hollywood, California that was listed in the National Register of Historic Places in 1985. The building was designed by architect John C. Austin, also noted as the lead architect of the Griffith Observatory. In 1921, the Hollywood lodge of the Masons relocated from their existing lodge on the current site of the Kodak Theatre. The construction of the new three-story building was led by lodge master, Charles E. Toberman, who was responsible for the Hollywood Bowl, Grauman's Chinese Theatre, the Roosevelt Hotel and the Max Factor Building. The original building cost of $176,678, a sum of $56,421 allotted to furniture and fixtures and $36,295 for the purchase of the lot. When the new temple opened, it was one of the most substantial structures in Hollywood. It had a billiard room, pipe organ, ladies parlor, ballroom and lodge rooms. One writer described the building as "unsurpassed for beauty, attractiveness and richness of equipment." The architect, John C. Austin also worked on the Shrine Auditorium, Griffith Observatory and Los Angeles City Hall. Many of Hollywood's elite over the years have been Masons, including Oliver Hardy, Harold Lloyd, Douglas Fairbanks, W.C. Fields, Cecil B. DeMille, D.W. Griffith, John Wayne, Roy Rogers and Gene Autry.^[3] There are stories, never confirmed, of a secret tunnel running from Mann's Chinese theater under Hollywood Boulevard to the Masonic Temple.
